

Cooperation

Is about two or more people working together usually combining a range of skills to achieve an end result.