

Curiosity

Energises children's learning and helps them to engage with a range of activities. It helps them to direct their own learning, to be ambitious and original, and to enjoy all the learning they do.